CHANGES TO YOUR BENEFITS

Changes to Vet Fee cover.

Behavioural treatments

We've enhanced the behavioural cover and made the following changes:

- We've made it easier to access this cover. Your pet will no longer need to be diagnosed with a behavioural issue by a vet. We will now cover behavioural treatments as long as your pet has been referred to a behavioural specialist by a vet.
- We've removed the 6-month time limit for behavioural treatments.

Old wording	New wording
✓ If your pet is diagnosed with a behavioural condition by a vet, we will pay its treatment costs. We will pay for up to 6 months after diagnosis. Your pet's behavioural Condition must be treated by either a Certified Animal Behaviourist (CCAB), a member of the Association of Pet Behaviour Counsellors (APBC), a member of the Canine and Feline Behaviour Association (CFBA) or a vet.	✓ We will pay for behavioural treatment if your pet was referred to a behavioural specialist by a vet. Not following regulations

- As the United Kingdom stopped taking part in the PET Passport Scheme (following Brexit), we’ve updated the exclusion about not following the PET Passport Scheme when taking your pet abroad. Instead, you will need to follow local rules when taking your pet abroad. Local rules can be found on <https://www.gov.uk/taking-your-pet-abroad>.
- We’ve added an exclusion for travelling with your pet to a destination against the advice of the Foreign, Commonwealth & Development Office (FCDO). If you travel or book a trip to a destination against FCDO advice, you will not be able to claim for any costs under your Travel cover, including any vet costs incurred abroad.

Changes to “Cover to help when you have to say goodbye to your pet” (also known as Farewell cover).

We’ve enhanced this benefit to include cover for burial or cremation costs if your pet passes away from illness or accident without vet intervention.

Changes to “Cover if your pet passes away due to accident or illness” (also known as Death from Illness or Accident).

(Only if you purchased this option)

- We’ve enhanced this benefit to include cover for pets that were put to sleep due to an illness or accident.
- We’ve removed cover for burial or cremation costs from this benefit. You can continue to claim for these costs from your Farewell cover.
- We’ve also clarified when our exclusion for pets over 9 applies:

5. Your cover.

Veterinary treatment

In line with our exclusion on complications of pregnancies after your pet's first pregnancy, we have clarified that we are unable to cover costs for medical conditions or complications due to breeding or pregnancies after the first pregnancy.

6. Legal information.

6.1 Cancellation by us

If you miss a payment

The existing wording says that if you miss a payment, we will notify you by email and SMS. We have updated this section to say that if you miss a payment, we will only notify you by email.

Other cancellations

The existing wording says that we have the right to cancel your policy by giving you 14 days' notice. We have updated this section with examples when we can cancel your policy by giving you 14 days' notice. Please note that this is not a complete list of situations when we can cancel your policy by giving you notice.

6.4 Fraud

We've updated our fraud wording to include our right to void a policy in the event of fraud. We also explained what a voided policy means.

For ease of reference, a voided policy means that your insurance will be invalidated from the policy start date and is treated as if it never existed. This may also mean you have to declare this to future insurers.
